

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*Desert Hot Springs Little League Celebrates the Opening of its 45th Season

Desert Hot Springs, March 28, 2017: On April 1, 2017 at 10:00 AM, the Desert Hot Springs Little League will be celebrating the beginning of their 45th season of Baseball and Softball in our Community!

“For the past 44 years, Little League has provided our Community with the opportunity for families to connect and for children to come together in a healthy, safe environment to learn the values of team sports and the fundamentals of baseball and softball. The Desert Hot Springs Little League is proud to be able to provide this opportunity to our community,” said Al Gonzalez, President of the Desert Hot Springs Little League.

To kick off the start of the season, Al will be providing an introduction of the teams, and Carol Morin from Mission Springs Water District will be throwing the first pitch!

As always, admission to the games are free, so come join us for another beautiful day in Desert Hot Springs, support our Little League, and “Play Ball!”
